

Working with our builder, we found the ADU roof design was too complicated and adding too much cost. We've simplified the roof design to a simple split roof. The floorplan remains the same. The new design should look more like this:

